ANOTHER LITTLE EMMA JOB.

A Detroit Capitalist "Salted" for Nearly a Quarter of a Million-The Eureka Swindle Exposed. Ebon B. Ward is a great steamboat owner, capi-callst and manufacturer of Detroit, owner of the Wyandotte Rolling Mills, a friend of Senator Zach Chandler, and usually has been credited with Wyandette Rolling Mills, a friend of Senator Zach Chandier, and usually has been credited with great shrewdones. How he has been overreached is thus tofd by the Free Press of Friday.—

His story, as stated in his complaints before the Police Justice of Detroit, sets forth that in 1872 he was approached by John M. Whitney, of Sait Lake, and Joel Lawrence, of Chicago, on the subject of purchasing stock in the Eurexa sliver mine, located in Utah. Ward looked enviously at the rich specimens placed before him, and minsily declared that it he was sure the mine was all right he might take stock. Whitney and Lawrence wanted him to be sure that it was all right—in fact, they were adverse to his taking a deliar of stock until he had perfectly satisfied himself on that point. They did not press him stronger, but held the bait ready for him and were content to wait. Ward sent an "expert" to Utah with instructions to examine the mine and satisfy himself that it was as represented.

During the agent's absence the two men disposed of considerable stock to residents of Detroit. Several small capitalists had silver mine on the brain. and, hearing that Ward was going in heavily, they went for the stock like rats for a grain bin. It is said that about $50,000 cash was paid over to Whitney and Lawrence by Detroiters, besides what was outained from Ward. When Ward's agent came back he told such a tale of richness that the Captain could hardly take it all in at once. The mine just gistened with silver, and all that was needed was capital to mine it and send it away to be coined. Pihe agent brought back a number of specimens to back up his assertions, and when these were empited out Ward could doubt no longer. Whitney and Lawrence called around after a day or two, and there was no delay in closing a bargain for stock. The complaint avers that ward agreed to and dates $20,000 worth to face, giving in return the following property:—

Three promissory notes, each of the value of $10,000, payable in one year from October 7, 1872, write a second visit, and the real state of affairs came to light.

When the agent returned Lawrence was not to be found, and on the 6th inst. Ward filed his complaints here and obtained warrants for the arrest of both. It was ascertained that Lawrence was in New York and Whitney in Sait Lake City. Detective Stadler was sent East and Sergeant Britton West, and, as the telegraph has aiready stated, both have secured their men. The prisoners will be arraigned here, and when the whole case is laid bare it is expected that something rich in everything besides silver will be uncarthed. Lawrence and Whitney are said to be worth $40,000 ench, and they will no doubt make the liveliest kind of a fight. The other Detroit stockholders are, it is stated, also prepared to make complaints against them.

A BOND FORGER CONVICTED.

CLEVELAND, Onio, Dec. 13, 1873. Loring G. White, alias William Elfis, of Weynouth. Mass., who was arrested in New York last Pebruary and brought here on a requisition to be tried for forgery, was to-day found guilty of issuing and passing forged Union Pacific Railroad income bonds to the amount of $15,000 on the bank of J. V. Painter, of this city. White also passed a number of these forged bonds in New York and other Eastern cities.
